

There I was, thinking of the Lord's blessings...

Dear Andrea:

I just wanted you to know how much I appreciate you coming to talk with our preschoolers about germs. I know that I should have had this card out to you a long time ago, but, the picture of the preschoolers that I was going to send you is still in my camera. (I haven't been to Walmart in a while). So please accept my apology and know that I appreciate you, and that I owe you a picture.

Sincerely,
Anita Cook

...and you came to mind!
